The true story of how 3 shepherd children were chosen by God to offer an urgent message of hope to the world. Based on the memoirs of the oldest seer, Lucia Santos, and thousands of eye-witness accounts, The 13th Day dramatizes the apparitions of Our Lady in a rural cova in Fatima, culminating in the prophesied Miracle of the Sun on October 13, 1917. Despite government attempts to silence them through abduction, imprisonment, and threats of death, the children remained faithful and true to their story about the crucial messages from Our Lady: prayer, repentance, and conversion for the world. (filmed on location in Portugal)

“The 13th Day is the best film ever made about Fatima the most beautiful and effective, as well as one of the most historically accurate. Sister Lucia’s memories are imbued with an aura of reverie and contemplation by striking visuals, an effective score and a stark, simple narrative. A fact-based film that succeeds in being both artful and reverent is a rare thing. The 13th Day succeeds.” - Steve Greydanus, National
